REGULATION

1. Selection of School Library Materials
 - a. The responsibility for selection of school library materials shall rest with the principal and his/her designated library personnel.
 - b. However, the selection of materials for the school library shall be a cooperative process in which administrators, teachers, librarians, parents/guardians, and students have an opportunity to provide input.
 - c. The following authorities are representative of those which shall be consulted in selection of school library materials:
 - i. Publications such as: The American Library Association, National Council of Teachers of English, H. W. Wilson catalog series, American Association for the Advancement of Science, National Education Association, and the Association for Educational Communications and Technology.
 - ii. Current reviewing media such as: School Library Journal, American Library Association Booklist, Horn Book, and professional journals in various subject areas.
2. Selection and use of Audio-Visual Media Materials. The following guidelines will be used in the selection of audio-video media materials:

- a. All media materials used in the District should be used in compliance with state and federal laws and regulations, to include the Copyright Revision Act.
 - b. Specific materials used in established District programs, such as Sex Education, AIDS Education, and Child Assault Prevention, should be used only in accordance with established District policies and regulations and Nevada state law.
 - c. Media materials used as part of adopted instructional materials should be used in accordance with the provided curriculum & content standards for that subject area.
 - d. The faculty member shall preview the media material and demonstrate that:
 - i. the showing of the media material is appropriate to the age and maturity level of the student,
 - ii. it contributes to an appropriate classroom instructional objective, and
 - iii. it does not consume an inordinate amount of instructional time.
 - e. The school principal shall ensure that District guidelines and administrative regulations are followed.
3. Motion Pictures and Videos Rated by the Motion Picture Association Of America.
- a. These guidelines will be used in the selection of commercial motion pictures and videos:
 - i. Elementary School
 - 1. When G-rated films are shown in the classroom, the principal must be notified.
 - 2. PG-rated films will not be shown in the elementary schools, unless the principal determines that the film/video meets the guidelines set forth under Section 2, Selection of Audio-Visual Media Materials, of this Administrative Regulation. Parents/guardians must be notified of the title of the film/video and its rating and their approval given.
 - 3. PG-13 and R-rated films will not be shown in grades K-5.
 - ii. Middle School

1. When G-rated films are shown in the classroom, the principal must be notified.
2. When PG-rated films are shown in the classroom, the principal must be notified. Parents/guardians must be notified of the title of the film/video and its rating and their written approval given.
3. PG-13-rated films will not be shown at the middle school level, unless the principal determines that the film/video meets the guidelines set forth under Section 2, Selection of Audio-Visual Media Materials, of this Administrative Regulation. If the principal approves the use of the film/video, parents/guardians must be notified of the title of the film/video and its rating and their approval given.
4. R-rated films will not be shown to students in grades 6-8.

iii. High School

1. When G and PG-rated films are shown, the principal must be notified.
2. When PG-13-rated films are shown, the principal must be notified. Parents/guardians must be notified of the title of the film/video and its rating and their written approval given.
3. R-rated films will not be shown at the high school level, unless the principal determines that the film/video meets the guidelines set forth under Section 2, Selection of Audio-Visual Media Materials, of this Administrative Regulation. If the principal approves the use of the film/video, parents/guardians must be notified of the title of the film/video and its rating and their approval given.

iv. NC-17 and X-rated films will not be shown in the schools at any level.

4. Unrated Commercial Films, Videos and clips from an Outside Source Including Videos Streamed or Downloaded from the Internet
 - a. Use of films that are not rated should be approved by the school principal.
 - b. When these films are shown in the classroom, at any grade level, the principal must be notified and his/her written approval given. The principal will determine whether written parent/guardian approval shall be required.
 - c. No such film shall be shown unless the principal determines that the film meets the guidelines set forth under Section 2, Selection of Audio-Visual Media Materials, of this Administrative Regulation.

- d. No clips shall be shown in the classroom unless they meet the guidelines sets forth in Section 2, Selection of Audio-Visual Media Materials, of this Administrative Regulation.
5. Supplementary Titles (for non- Advanced Placement and non-International Baccalaureate Courses)
- a. This applies to all supplementary titles (novels) taught as a complete text in a whole class setting in any content area including English Language Arts (ELA), Social Studies, Science, and CTE etc.
 - b. Since most supplementary titles are taught as part of the English Language Arts curriculum, a current list of supplemental titles will be available on the Curriculum and Instruction website under 7-12 English Language Arts.
 - c. Teachers who wish to teach a book to a whole class that is not on the Supplementary Title List will need to submit the book along with the Supplementary Title Form to the Director of Curriculum & Instruction by the deadline (October 1 for spring and March 1 for fall).
 - d. The Office of Academics' Supplementary Title Committee shall review and approve submissions of titles not on the approved list.
 - i. All titles submitted should meet text complexity standards for the grade level being considered and have a demonstrated curricular need.
 - ii. The committee shall:
 1. Meet twice each year;
 2. Be comprised of the Director of Curriculum & Instruction, ELA or other content area Facilitator, Library representative, a Site Administrator and one content area teacher from either a High School or Middle School at a minimum.
 3. Evaluate the book and determine whether or not it should be added to the list of approved titles. Books shall be evaluated based on several factors including:
 - a. Appropriateness of vocabulary and complexity for the grade level in which the book will be used.
 - b. Appropriateness of content for the grade level

(maturity, interest). Books that are deemed "Adult" are not recommended for use in a whole class setting.

- c. Demonstrated curricular and grade level standards alignment.
 - iii. If the book is approved, it will be added to the list along with any helpful annotation.
 - e. Teachers who wish to teach books in small groups (e.g. there are many choices for students) that are not currently on the supplementary title list shall
 - i. Preview the material and demonstrate that:
 - 1. The use of the material is appropriate for the maturity level of the student; and
